

Membership Benefits

Being a member of KADC allows you to take advantage of benefits such as:

- Continuing legal education.
- Legislative updates during the session.
- A quarterly newsletter to keep you abreast of legal changes and events in Kansas.
- Amicus Briefs.
- Weekly emails with hotlinks to Supreme Court and Court of Appeals published opinions; and future dockets.
- Weekly posting on the KADC website of unpublished Supreme Court and Court of Appeals opinions. KADC's website is <http://www.kadc.org>. You will need a logon and password to get into the opinions. If you have forgotten the logon and password, email Jean at jbarbee@kadc.org
- Moderated, secure listserv where you can exchange information with your peers regarding expert witnesses and other issues.
To join your KADC list serve go to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/kadclistserve/> or email Jean and she will add you to the group.
- Representation to the Defense Research Institute (DRI). Fred Starrett has served as our representative for three years. We will elect a new representative at the annual meeting on Saturday.
- One year free membership in DRI for new KADC members who have never been a member of DRI
- With both KADC and DRI membership you have the opportunity for exchange of ideas with some of the best attorneys in the state, region and nation.